Modern bathroom culture has stood for the height of cleanliness and wellbeing from the beginning of time. Above all, every HEALTHWARE bathroom offers a haven for leisure in addition to convenience and usefulness. Because of this, HEALTHWARE combines Western engineering and eastern bathroom culture.

Naturalness

Modern civilization has always included the bathing ritual. Modern living, where spiritual and physical purity go hand in hand, places a premium on cleanliness and hygiene as an essential element of daily existence. Both are necessary for the other to exist. This is also a cornerstone of HEALTHWARE.

Bacteria Free

All of the HEALTHWARE Sanitaryware's bearings utilise the revolutionary Silver Nano technology. The series has distinct layers of a nano ceramic coating that contains ion-sized silver nanoparticles. This will keep it completely clean and safe by preventing the growth of any bacteria.
